Short answer questions

1. Which hormones are activated in response to surgical stress?

2. Name three proinflammatory mediators.

3. Name at least three treatments that will support the return of early gut motility and explain briefly how they work.

4. Give three reasons for the use of perioperative epidural analgesia using local anaesthetics.