Chapter 20: Principles of Skin Surgery

Introduction

Critical anatomical considerations

Equipment and sterilization

Safety aspects

Complications

Local anaesthetics
20.2 Chapter 20: Principles of Skin Surgery

Suture technique

Dressings and postoperative care

Secondary intention healing

Flaps

Mohs micrographic surgery

Chapter 20: Principles of Skin Surgery

20.4 Chapter 20: Principles of Skin Surgery

Electrocautery and electrosurgery

Cryosurgery

Caustics

Intralesional corticosteroid therapy

References

Intralesional therapies for skin malignancies

Curettage

Haemostasis for open wounds

Epidermoid cysts

Lipomas